  - (2) President Truman took important measures to found and support the United Nations.
  - (3) President Truman made important decisions that brought World War II to a successful conclusion and brought the former Axis countries to a free and democratic condition.
  - (4) President Truman gave economic and military aid to Greece and Turkey in 1947 and after in order to allow them to avoid a communist overthrow of their governments and to pursue freely their individual destinies, and he further stated it to be the policy of the United States to support free peoples who are resisting attempted subjugation by armed minorities and to help them freely to pursue their independent destinies.
  - (5) President Truman had an important part in formulating and realizing the program of economic assistance for Europe that became known as the Marshall Plan and, through his support for the plan, he helped to maintain an area of prosperity and freedom in Western Europe.

- West Berlin when they were threatened by a blockade by the Soviet Union of all land and water routes to the city, and the airlift that grew out of Truman's desire to maintain West Berlin as an area of freedom succeeded in supplying the city until the Soviet Union gave up its blockade.
  - (7) President Truman helped to establish the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and his administration was strongly supportive of measures to strengthen the Atlantic Alliance and to achieve the integration of the countries of Western Europe.
  - (8) President Truman fought throughout his Presidency for domestic programs that would improve the lives of the American people and reinforce their country's commitment to social justice.
  - (9) President Truman desegregated the Armed Forces and took other actions to fight racism, and his actions helped to provide the foundation of the modern civil rights movement.
  - (10) President Truman oversaw the reorganization of the United States Government in order that it might be capable of meeting the demands of the postwar world, and during his administration were created the National Security Council, the Central

- 1 Intelligence Agency, the Department of Defense, the
- 2 Department of the Air Force, the Council of Eco-
- nomic Advisers, and other important new agencies
- 4 and offices.
- 5 (11) President Truman, through his Point Four
- 6 Program, stated the goal for American policy of fos-
- 7 tering economic growth and human uplift in under-
- 8 developed countries.
- 9 (12) President Truman led his country to resist
- aggression in Korea, and his goals in making war
- against the aggressors were to avoid a world war, to
- support the United Nations, and to maintain free-
- dom in the world.
